

Learning Targets: Unit 2 - From Flintstones to Millstones

No.	Learning Target	Feedback Notes
LT2.1	I can classify artifacts as Paleolithic or Neolithic and use them to describe Stone Age patterns of living. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I can apply methods used by historians to create an account of the main characteristics of pre-historic societies by looking at artifacts from this time period.</li> </ul>
LT2.2	I can demonstrate understanding of the peopling of the earth by <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Mapping human migration pathways on a blank world map</li> <li>List and discuss push-pull factors that caused early human migration</li> </ul>
LT2.3	I can describe how Paleolithic humans lived within a particular biome when given a description of the biome.
LT2.4	I can explain how and why humans shifted from full-time foraging to living in settlements (Paleo- to Neolithic turning point).
LT2.5	I can demonstrate understanding and use of key vocabulary throughout the unit.	